Gold Edition no. 19 – available now

CAPTURE MEMORIES FOREVER

Gold Edition no. 19, the Chronicler carries an old-fashioned camera encased in 24-karat gold. This heavenly messenger is a charming reminder to consciously turn toward – and cherish – the moments of beauty amid the all-too-familiar chaos of everyday life. A wonderful present for amateur and professional photographers alike, for those whose travels you hope are full of photo-worthy moments, or for anyone who needs to stay focused. Only 22,222 of these angels featuring the 24-karat gold-plated base are due to be produced. The serial number is added to the figurine's base and printed in the accompanying booklet and on the chipboard box – turning each angel into a unique gem.

SUPPORTING A PROJECT CLOSE TO OUR HEARTS

Our new Eleven Dot angel holds on tight to their much-loved teddy bear – the perfect image of harmony, comfort, and warmth. And you can't help but fall in love with the bear's round head, beady eyes, and gentle smile. This heavenly messenger and their cuddly friend are a wonderful gift for a new baby and a faithful companion for family life. Our figurine comes in two color variations. The blond-haired angel holds a dark-colored teddy bear in their right arm, while the brown-haired angel has their left arm around a light-colored bear. In 2026, we want to continue spreading joy and doing good together: Once again, we shall therefore be donating four euro from the sale of each figurine to the World Childhood Foundation's projects.

Adding a personal touch: The base of the figurine can be personalized with a name and the year.
